ALMA MATER

The roses of which poets sing

Bow down their heads and die;

Not so the name, the gloried name,

Of our dear Freeland High,

With passing years its fame will grow

Long live its destiny!

The name of our dear Freeland High

Will live eternally.

Sweet music that we hear today

Tomorrow Time will claim;

Our song of love and gratitude

This Time can never maim.

This song of gratitude will live

Down through the ages long;

The children of tomorrow's world

Will hear our gloried song.

Lyrics, Robert Salitza '54

Music, Louis E. Citro

ADVERTISEMENTS

The world is full of mostly invisible things,
And there is no way but putting the mind's eye,
Or its nose, in a book, to find them out,
Things like the square root of Everest
Or how many times Byron goes into Texas,
Or whether the law of the excluded middle Applies west of the Rockies. For these
And the like reasons, you have to go to school
And study books and listen to what you are told,
And sometimes try to remember. Though I don't know What you will do with the mean annual rainfall
On Plato's Republic, or the calorie content
Of the Diet of Worms, such things are said to be Good for you, and you will have to learn them
In order to become one of the grown-ups
Who sees invisible things neither steadily nor whole,
But keeps gravely the grand confusion of the world
Under his hat, which is where it belongs,
And teaches small children to do this in their turn.

Howard Nemerov

"If yesterday were never there, where would be tomorrow?" expresses one of the main purposes of a yearbook. A yearbook is filled with memories, and we feel that one cannot simply base a good yearbook on the activities of a select few. A good yearbook must take the interests of all students into consideration. Putting together a yearbook is not an easy task. We found ourselves faced with several obstacles: Where do we begin? Where do we stop? How do we include everyone in so few pages?

As you look through this book, you will see familiar faces and happy events. Each photograph holds a special meaning. Our yearbook remembers. In years to come, no matter how often you look through your yearbook, you will rediscover the excitement you experienced during your senior year, a year when everything seemed to happen so fast. We tried to capture the moments which all of us should remember forever.

Do you remember—the first big basketball game? the last game? the Halloween Dance? practice for Senior Day? our first football game? baseball? cross country? collecting cans for the Ecology Club? tests? term papers? the time our girls' basketball team won? the "unreal" bowling matches? the trip to Europe!? the play, good old Rubberneck? the Prom? Class Night? Graduation? the tears? the laughter?—A yearbook does.

We hope you will enjoy looking at this book as much as we have enjoyed putting it together. As editor, I proudly present La Vita '73!

STAIRWAY TO HEAVEN*

There's a feeling I get
When I look to the west
And my spirit is crying for leaving.
In my thoughts I have seen
Rings of smoke through the trees
And the voices of those who stand looking.
It makes me wonder.
It really makes me wonder.
And it's whispered that soon
If all call the tune
Then the pipers will lead us to reason.
And a new day will dawn
For those who stand long
And the forest will echo with laughter.
There's a lady who's sure
All that glitters is gold
And she's buying a stairway to heaven.
When she gets there she knows
If the stores all are closed
With a word she can get what she came for.
And she's buying a stairway to
heaven.
There's a sign on the wall
But she wants to be sure
'Cause you know sometimes words
have two meanings.
In a tree by the brook
There's a songbird who sings
Sometimes all of our thoughts are misgiven
It makes me wonder.
It makes me wonder.

If there's a bustle in your hedgerow
Don't be alarmed now.
It's just a spring clean for the May queen.
Yes, there are two paths you can go by
But in the long run
There's still time to change the road you're on!
And it makes me wonder
Your head is humming and it won't go
In case you don't know
The piper's calling you to join him.
Dear lady, can you hear the wind
blow and did you know Your stairway lies on the whispering wind.
And as we wind on down the road
Our shadows taller than our souls.
There walks a lady we all know
Who shines white light and wants to show
How ev'rything still turns to gold.
And if you listen very hard
The tune will come to you at last.
When all are one and one is all
To be a rock and not to roll.
And she's buying a stairway to heaven.
